INTRODUCTION TO TRAINING COURSES - Promoting SEND and Inclusion

For schools, education and support services working together to deliver the best possible outcomes for all SEND pupils working in partnership is vital.

Working closely with Warwickshire schools and settings we are able to support SEND training requirements by identifying current areas of need in SEND training and then offering specific and on occasion bespoke training and professional development opportunities to help address them.

The Training Courses within this brochure provide a menu from strategic planning for the whole school to personalised programmes to meet specific needs.

The training will help schools deliver excellent SEND teaching and high standards of curriculum for all pupils by developing their SEND provision and raising the confidence of those colleagues working with pupils who have SEND. It is intended to promote and develop an increasingly confident and skilled workforce with the necessary skills and knowledge to meet an increasingly diverse range of SEND needs, reflecting the ambitions of the recent 'Right Support, Right Place, Right Time', Green Paper 2022.

Our most popular courses are included again based on the evaluations received and the evidence of impact they have had in our schools and settings.

As in previous brochures you will find that in addition to the courses offered in the main section, there are options for schools and settings to create their own bespoke training and professional development opportunities in order to meet specific training need.

Dates for SENDCo network meetings and New SENDCo meetings are included in the brochure again this term. We recommend that schools prioritise SENDCo's attendance at the termly SENDCo network meetings as this is the key forum for sharing best practice, ensuring they are fully informed and influencing policy development.
